Event Information for Human Books

Thursday, April 26, 2018

General Information

- When you arrive at the Dry Memorial Library, you will check in at Room D114. Please arrive no later than 9:30 am.
- After a welcome reception and brief orientation, you will be escorted your designated “reading” area.
- Staff will be available to assist with your requests throughout the day.
- Each reading session will last for approximately 20 minutes, followed by a 10 minute break.
- Paws for Love "readers" will be limited to the start of the session and limited number of students as to not overwhelm the dogs.
- "Readers" will have a library card to be stamped at the end of the session.
- "Books" have a choice of one-on-one sessions with students or student walk-ups during the session.
- After your last reader, you will meet up again for a quick survey about your experience as a reader.

Book Tips

- While we will have coffee and light refreshments, you may wish to bring a snack, beverage or refillable water bottle.
- Paws for Love volunteers should bring disposable bags for their dogs. A water dish will be provided, but you are welcome to bring your own bowl, as well as, toys, blankets or treats for your dog.
- The temperature in the library fluctuates, you may wish to dress in layers as it tends to be cool in the library.
