"The Felon-Attorney"

The Arthur Duncan II, Esq.
ECC '06

The Arthur Duncan has an amazing story to tell.

From the streets of Buffalo and Los Angeles, he escaped gang violence and abuse from his cocaine-addicted stepfather, only to become a drug dealer himself.

He was arrested, convicted, and served three years in federal prison. Then he turned his life around.

Duncan graduated from ECC, then UB, then law school and passed the bar exam. Now he is an attorney with his own law practice.
